
OFFICIAL AUTHORIZED DISTRIBUTOR STATEMENT

elliTek, Inc. and Siemens

Issued: April 15, 2026

This document serves as an official statement that elliTek, Inc. is an authorized distributor partner for Siemens Digital Industries and Controls products. elliTek provides Siemens automation solutions, technical support, and training resources for customers throughout Eastern Tennessee and select counties in Kentucky, North Carolina, and Virginia.

Through this partnership, elliTek supports manufacturers, OEMs, machine builders, system integrators, and industrial end users with product selection, application guidance, troubleshooting support, and access to Siemens-focused technical training.

Siemens Eagle Award Recognition

In May 2025, elliTek was honored with the Siemens Eagle Award, one of the most prestigious recognitions available to Siemens automation distribution partners. According to Siemens, only four distributors in the country receive this award each year. The recognition highlights outstanding customer support, exceptional technical expertise, and strategic, sustainable growth.
